Private Client

Affluent individuals and family businesses, both from Poland and abroad, form a substantial part of our client base. We make sure that our clients hold their enterprises closely in order to retain sufficient control to meet their long-term individual and professional goals.

We have significant expertise in wealth planning, asset management, inheritance, reputation management, family law and immigration. We also act for charities and not for profit organisations. We are ranked Tier 1 for Private Client by Chambers HNW and by the Legal 500. Grzegorz Woźniak and Grzegorz Dudek are recommended as some of the best private client lawyers in Poland. Our special area of expertise is also restitution of real property and restitution of artworks.

Our services include:

- wealth structuring
- luxury assets
- private banking
- charities and not for profit
- reputation protection
- citizenship and migration
- inheritance law
- divorce and family law
- data protection
- property restitution claims and compensation
- restitution of artworks
- drawing up a will for a British-Polish family and advising on tax planning
- acting for a successful German-domiciled Indian entrepreneur in a divorce from his Polish wife and advising on child-custody arrangements
- advising a well-known Polish actor in breach of privacy proceedings
- advising a Polish Israeli successors on Warsaw property restitution
- advising the successors of a factory owners seeking compensation for the loss of the property following the Nationalisation of Industry Act 1946

Recent examples of our work:

"I could not have come across a more helpful and thorough team to trace my family's lost Warsaw townhouse."

Tamar Berman,
individual client,
Tel-Aviv

"Grzegorz Woźniak and Grzegorz Dudek are key names in Woźniak Legal's 'outstanding' team. The team is a popular choice for Japanese clients, assisting individuals with inheritance issues and advising companies on immigration matters. Other highlights included acting for the heirs of pre-war property owners in Warsaw."
